Belvidere, Ill., Dec. 3, 1891.
NORMAN LIGHTY, Des Moines, Iowa.
DEAR SIR:—Having suffered a great deal from headache for years and being unable to get relief until it would wear away of itself. I saw Krause's Headache Capsules advertised, I tried them and now am never without them, finding it the only remedy that will give me relief. When I now find a headache coming on me I take a capsule and find the relief instantaneous.

Respectfully yours,
G. H. WRIGHT,
Boston, Mass.
For sale by Summers & Dauchy, druggists.

The Ozark.

C. R. Higley is now located at the Ozark saloon, which he has fitted up in style and restocked with first class liquors and cigars. New billiard and pool tables. Beer 5 cents a glass. All other drinks one bit. jy12

Pasturage.

At the Werner Ranch, one mile from Empire. First-class pasturage, luscious grass, and pure water. For terms apply at the ranch.
MRS. A. WERNER.

Frank Blythen is now the agent for the celebrated Victor bicycles, and has a cash on the installment plan. jy21

ALL SORTS.

Things have quieted down in Bombay.

Yo Tambien won another race in Chicago recently.

Marcus Fredicks, of Reno, was in Carson yesterday.

The attendance at the big Fair is steadily increasing.

Cole Atherton's condition is reported quite serious.

Dwight Edwards, of the firm of Bell, Edwards & Co., is back.

It now looks like a dead lock in Congress on the silver question.

Wanted to Purchase.—A bedroom furniture set. Inquire at this office. a15w

Dr. Losey, the specialist, will be in Carson Sunday, at the Arlington.

Fresh French candies received daily from San Francisco, by L. Baer. c25.

Boss filled cases warranted to wear 20 years, fine movement $25.00 ate Golden's. jy22

A consignment of gold cure for the tobacco habit was received at the Keely Institute yesterday.

Warrants are ready for all bills allowed by the County Commissioners at their meeting Aug. 7th.

Tom Cleary, of Virginia City, was in Carson last night. Tom is in the milk business on the Comstock and doing well.

Pete Jackson, the APPEAL office cat, returned to the editorial sanctum yesterday after a suspicious absence of three days.

The ferry war is still in progress at the bay. The public looks on and smiles while it gets the benefit of the low rate of travel.

The appointment of Sheriff McDade as receiver of the Pacific Bank, has culminated in a test case as to validity of the appointment.

The decision of the Behring Sea Tribunal on the seal question, is announced, and it is said to be satisfactory to both America and England.

It is reported that the Miners Union will give a picnic in Carson, about the 7th of September, provided any of the mines remain open by that time.

At Beaver Falls recently a boy so placed a can of powder, that it exploded just as three younger boys passed over the place. The three died the next day as a result.

John Henderson, representing Wanamaker & Brown, Philadelphia, Pa., will be at the Arlington House, August 20th, with a full line of Fall and Winter samples of men and boys' clothing. a18

J. T. Banning, proprietor of Steamboat Springs is making a popular resort out of the place. There is a picnic on the shady ground three or four times a week, and a continued good time seems to be on tap there.

There is a four-year old boy in this city, who finds profit in crying until he is given 10 cents to stop. He announced yesterday that on account of the prevailing hard times the rate would be reduced to five cents until further notice.

The APPEAL has received a copy of the handsome book published by the Bancroft Company, Auctioneers, Building, Chicago, entitled "The Book of the Fair." It is the first of a series of 25 and costs $1. It is an exceedingly artistic piece of work.

Chas. H. Kelly has the thanks of the APPEAL staff for a fine large watermelon, which was received at this office yesterday afternoon, and not given time to spoil. Anyone wishing the mate to it can procure the same by applying to the above gentleman's place of business.

A man who was in Carson yesterday from the Comstock says times are lively in Virginia, in one sense of the word. Nearly every day a saloon closes its doors, and a fight can be seen almost any hour of the day or night. They no longer attempt to keep track of those who have black eyes, but the man without one is looked upon with wonder.

The Independent would like to know what benefit the Assaying department of the State University is to the people of the State. One of our citizens about the first of June, sent a sample of ore to the University to be assayed and up to this time has not heard from it. The regents should shake up the assaying department of the University.—Elko Independent.

COAST NEWS.

The list of dead in the explosion of the Annie Faxon, on Snake river, will reach twelve.

The Southern Pacific Company paid the employees their wages for June Tuesday.

James I. Felter, at Sacramento, has filed a petition of insolvency. His liabilities are $168,000, and his assets $32,000.

Mrs. Ferdinand Haller, the wife of a farmer at Grapeland, Santa Barbara, ran away with one Will Perter a hired man.

J. W. Rambo, a small merchant of Sacramento, is missed by his creditors. It is feared that he has drowned himself.

The first consignment of armor plates for the monitor Monadnock were brought to the Mare Island Navy Yard Tuesday.

Sheep-owners in Kern county report that San Francisco merchants advise them not to shear their flocks this fall wherever they can avoid it.

The Sacramento chain-gang struck for eight hours a day. They have been locked up and will be fed on bread and water for a while.

Charles Pidge, aged about thirty years, well known to the traveling public, was thrown from a buggy and killed at Watsonville Tuesday.

The 19-months-old child of U. S. G. Messersmith at San Jose fell through a glass door and cut its throat. It died from the wound.

The safe of the Steilacoom, Wash., Postoffice was blown open by cracksmen, Monday night, and robbed of $2,000 in money and all the stamps and postal notes.

Frank Smith, who has lived in Santa Barbara for many years and has filled many positions of trust, turns out to be the author of many clever burglaries. He has disappeared.

Colonel A. L. Clarke, a brother of the Minneapolis railroad magnate, and a resident at Fairview, Orange county, received injuries from being thrown from a horse that caused his death.

James Neary is charged at Santa Cruz with stabbing his wife. He claims he threw the knife on the table at which she was sitting and that it glanced and struck her, giving a fatal wound. The woman was a hard drinker.

ORDINANCE NO. 96.

An Ordinance prohibiting the sale of liquors to persons taking treatment for the cure of the habit of drinking intoxicating liquors:

The Board of Trustees of Carson City, Nevada, do ordain:

Section One. It shall be unlawful for any saloon keeper, restaurant keeper or hotel keeper, or any employee thereof, or any person whatsoever, to knowingly sell, barter, exchange, give away, dispose of or deliver, in Carson City, any intoxicating wine or liquor of any kind, to any person who shall at the time be under treatment by a physician or at a medical institute in said Carson City, for the purpose of being cured of the habit of drinking intoxicating liquors, except upon the written order or prescription of the physician who shall then be administering treatment to such person for the cure of said habit.

Section Two. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding Fifty dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding Twenty-five days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section Three. All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved 14th of Aug, 1893.

T. R. HOFER,
President.

E. AUBE, Clerk,
By S. H. Day, Deputy.

Christ on the Comstock.

At a revival meeting in Virginia Sunday evening, in front of Con Abern's saloon, the preacher said the world would come to an end in seven years, and that in three and a half years, Jesus Christ would descend among us and labor with us.

At this juncture an Irishman was heard to remark:

"If Jesus Christ come down here to work on the Comstock, and goes to the Savage moine lookin' fer a job, thim d-d Jews will cut his wages down."

Killed his Sweetheart.

Winston, N. C., August 17.—Yesterday in the Forsyth Supreme Court Peter de Graff, a handsome young man, was convicted of murdering his sweetheart, Ellen Smith, in a suburb of this city on June 20, 1892. De Graff managed to elude the officers and escaped arrest until June 20th last.

On that day he went to the scene of the murder with a friend and exclaimed in a loud voice, "Ellen, if you are in heaven, stay there; if in hell, rise."

When on the witness stand, testifying in his own behalf, he explained that he had heard it said that if a man who had committed murder would go back to the scene of the crime and use these words the dead person would appear. The trial created great interest.

A Correction.

Empire, Aug. 17, 1893.

EDITOR APPEAL:—You made a funny mess of my mention of the May family. I wrote that Miss Mena Keig of Virginia, was visiting Miss Jennie May, and that Hank May had about recovered from a severe attack of rheumatism. Now Miss Jennie has never had rheumatism and she won't thank me when she sees her name mixed up with the disease with which her father is so often afflicted.

NEIL MAHER.

[The mistake was caused by a compositor leaving a line out of the original, but as it appeared to read all right in the proof, the omission was not noticed by the proofreader.—ED. APPEAL.]

Sudden Death.

Captain C. A. Bragg, of Reno, father of the proprietor of the Gazette dropped dead in Reno Wednesday, while standing beside the coffin of his granddaughter, Hazel Bacon who had died of diphtheria the previous day, and whose funeral was about to take place.

Deceased was 75 years of age. He was father of Allen C. Bragg, of the Gazette, Mrs. W. R. Jenvey, Mrs. B. F. Bacon, Mrs. J. E. Dealy and Mrs. R. L. Fulton.

Blown to Pieces.

Havershaw, N. Y., August 17.—The residents of Tomkins Cove were aroused early yesterday morning by a loud explosion. On investigating the body of Harry Smith, with the head and arms blown off, was found lying in a large hole. Smith was a stoneman, 50 years old, and had been out of work for some time. He kept dynamite cartridges in his house, and, as one of them was missing, it is supposed that he committed suicide by exploding it.

Too Late.

Not knowing that Lyman Frisbie had already been declared winner of the beauty contest, Nobe Jellerson of Glenbrook, sent down fifty votes last evening, with the accompanying note.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE APPEAL:—Enclosed find fifty votes. Modesty forbids me putting the name on them but I feel perfectly safe in relying on your good judgement in the matter. Trustingly,
N. J.
